Description

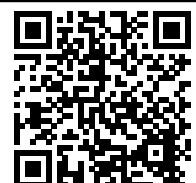

Fine quality late C19th/early C20th mahogany bookcase in the Sheraton revival style. Oval panelled 2-door base cupboard with 'lancet' pattern bar-glazed 2-door bookcase cabinet top. Cross-banded throughout with satinwood banding and inlaid with box-wood stringing. The cornice with carved 'tear-drop' detail and moulded profile pediment. The 2-door cupboard base having oval panels with broad satinwood cross-banded surrounds. The cabinet top with finely-moulded glazing bars enclosing 3 height adjustable shelves with moulded front edges, together with 'ladder-racking' sides, the base fitted with a single adjustable shelf. The base section fitted with 2 oak-lined short drawers with ovoid inlay to the frieze each fitted with a period-style 'rococo' design brass handle. The doors all fitted with their original brass escutcheons, interior door bolts and locks, and supplied with a working key. Raised on a plinth base. The reverse with fielded panel back-boards. The cabinet doors fitted with hand-blown glass of C18th style with good 'movement' and colour. Well-selected grade of timber which has impressive depth and figuring, the top of the base featuring a 'fi...
