Description

In wonderful condition, this is an American reading magnifying glass named "EzyRede". The folding magnifying glass comes in the original leather case gold printed to the front with the 1919 patent date making this a true antique being 100 years old this year. The case has some stitching missing to one side. The magnifying glass has two folded legs which come into action once unfolding then sits on a book or newspaper; the magnifier itself being in excellent clean condition without damage; perfectly usable today. 4 1/4" x 1 3/4" x 1 3/8" tall once in open.
