Description

A beautiful Georgian mahogany chest of drawers dating from the early 19th Century. Excellent quality and very well made with a lovely rich patina. It is set on bracket feet with a very simple straight design. The drawers have small brass plate handles which, although they are not original, look good and are in-keeping with the style of the chest. The drawers open well, having recently had the runners repaired or replaced and are generally clean and tidy inside. It is in good condition for its age. There are the usual small signs of wear, some minor marks and old scratches and some small repairs to the veneer in places and a repair to a chip on the foot but nothing detrimental. Overall it displays very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
