Description

Pair of Kip Engravings of Syston and Swell from "The Ancient and Present State of Glostershire". Johannes Kip (1653 - 1722) was a Dutch draughtsman, engraver, and print dealer who was active in England after producing works for the court of William of Orange in Amsterdam. Following the Glorious Revolution of 1688, Kip accompanied the Court to England and settled in Westminster where he conducted a thriving print selling business from his house in St. John's Street. He also worked for various London publishers producing engravings, largely for book illustrations. His most important works were the execution of the illustrations for Britannia Illustrata, 1708; The Ancient and Present State of Gloucestershire, 1712, and Le Nouveau Theatre de la Grande Bretagne, 1715. "Syston the Seat of Sam Trotman Esq." and "Swell the Seat of Sr Robert Atkyns". from 'The Ancient and Present State of Glostershire,' published in London in 1712, with seventy-three copper plates by Kip. Drawn and engraved by Johannes Kip who arrived in England with King William and Queen Mary in the Glorious Revolution of 1688. He then travelled around England documenting notable estates. In the late 1600s,...
