Description

Gents 1920s trench style wrist watch. The watch has a jewelled hand-winding movement which is working nicely. After much investigation, we suspect this movement could be by Glashütte although there is no signature or marking to confirm this. The watch measures 32.5mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the fixed lugs. The nickel case is in very nice condition, as is the glass lens. The dial is in lovely condition with the red number 12 being a handsome feature. Originally the hands would have had infill but this has been removed over the years. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box.
