Description

George II period walnut bureau; the desk fitted with six small drawers, six pigeon-holes with shaped valences and a central cupboard with a brass line-inlaid panel, enclosed by a flap with six matched veneer panels and chevron bandings. The lower part with four oak-lined drawers with banded fronts and fine gilt cast-brass handles and escutcheons. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend every November.
