Description

A magnificent antique Georgian inlaid mahogany bureau dating from the early 19th century. It boasts a fall front inlaid with a classical urn within a cartouche in satinwood which opens to reveal a handsome interior fitted with a centre cupboard, six small drawers pigeon holes and secret compartments. Beneath the fall are four graduated inlaid drawers with brass swing handles and it stands on bracket feet with wooden wheels concealed beneath. In beautifully figured mahogany, it has fancy brass escutcheons and it comes with 2 working keys, which lock the fall and drawers and one which locks the internal cupboard. A really good quality bureau and of a really good size at just 95cm wide. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good colour and patina. Some old (solid) repairs to the bottom corners of the fall. The writing felt to interior is old and worn. Lower piece to back bracket foot missing (doesn't affect stability as it is on wheels). Other wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 95cm at Feet Depth: 54cm Height to Top: 108cm Height to Fall: 82cm
