Description

A good large Edwardian cut glass scent bottle with solid silver collar. The bottle is good quality with a star-cut base and its original stopper. The collar is hallmarked for J.H.Worrall Son & Co, London, 1906. It is slightly rubbed but still distinguishable. It is in good condition for its age. There are some small dinks in the silver collar and some general signs of age and use. There are no cracks or major damages to the glass however there are some minor small surface chips around the bottle and one larger one on the stopper which i've photographed but overall it displays very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. UK Delivery £5.
