His painterly abstracted figures are typically isolated in glass or steel geometrical cages, set against flat, nondescript backgrounds. - Bacon took up painting in his early 20s but worked sporadically and uncertainly until his mid-30s. He drifted as a highly complex bon vivant, homosexual, gambler and interior decorator and designer of furniture, rugs and bathroom tiles. He later admitted that his artistic career was delayed because he spent too long looking for subject matter that could sustain his interest. - His breakthrough came with the 1944 triptych Three Studies for Figures at the Base of a Crucifixion, which in the immediate a...
