Description

Nice design 18th century George 3rd mahogany square commode or bedside cabinet. Square legs with moulded corner edge and original wooden wheels to the bottom. The gallery top is a really nice shape with cut out hand holes in the sides. The pair of doors have nice flame veneered panels with shaped frames. The double drawer below has been nicely converted into a drawer. The cabinet has all its original brassware including swan neck handles to the drawer. The cabinet is in pretty good condition and is a very nice colour with good patination and waxed finish. SIZE; 21 1/2" square by 31" high overall CIRCA; 1770 - 1780
