Description

An impressive and large 1930's Art Deco Panther figure on a tri colour marble base. Wonderful patina and in great condition this figure shows real quality. Beautiful detailing on the figure, a real sense of muscle tones and movement from the configurations of the grains and swirls of the wood, very cleverly done. Normally these figures are in spelter so this is very unusual to be done in wood but works perfectly. Originating from France, unsigned in great condition.
