Description

Teke Turkmen torbas dating to the 18th century are rare to say the least. This beautiful example dates to no later than 1800 and is in near-perfect condition with a stunning madder-red field containing 6 large Teke guls - beautifully drawn. What is particularly rare is the depiction of the 'family unity' symbol which can be seen between the major and minor guls. This is an amazing acquisition and a serious collector's treasure. 1.27m x 0.48m (4' 2" x 1' 7").
