Description

A lovely set of spelling letters dating from the late 19th Century, originally used as a teaching aid for young children learning their alphabet and spelling. The letters are made of bone (cow/bovine) and there are 27 in total - 1 of every letter of the alphabet plus &. The letters measure approximately 13mm high. The whole set is in very good condition. There are no major damages to any of the letters and just some minor discolouration and marks on a few pieces. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. UK Delivery £5.
