Description

Good, heavy quality set of ten late nineteenth century chippendale style mahogany dining chairs comprising two carvers and eight single chairs. Leaf carved 'gothick' splat. Attractive, warm colour. The chairs are in in good solid condition, the polish having been revived and the chairs waxed. The drop in seats have old needle point covers which are very serviceable and suit the chairs. If required a professional upholstery service is available at a price of £25 per chair in a neutral fabric or we can use a material of a customers choice. Please ask for details and advice. The sizes given are for the single chairs. The carvers are 96cm high, 70cm wide, 58cm deep.
