Description

A lovely antique oak desk chair dating from the early 20th Century. It is a good comfortable chair and very well made with a shaped seat. It has an attractive shape with stylised spindles, curved arms and cabriole legs with a double H-stretcher. It serves as a lovely desk chair but would also be a nice library or hall chair. It is in excellent condition for its age. It has developed a lovely aged patina and is structurally very sound, having recently been restored. It has been gently cleaned and polished and although is not without a few small marks here and there it displays beautifully and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £45.
