Description

Matching pair of original 1930's Art Deco bedside nightstands. These have a great modernist feel and are an ideal size for modern use. They are mid tone blonde Beech veneer in colour so ideal for lighter or darker bedroom settings/ woods. Both have clear mirror glass tops and one pull out drawer, a great area for books and magazines. The bases are on black ebonised plinths which contrast beautifully with the lighter woods. Both cabinets have been through our workshops and so come to you in good vintage condition.
