Description

Never worn this timepiece has been kept in a drawer for several dozen years, these watches were found in a factory in Berlin buried away and only brought to light 80 odd years later, in fact not until April of this year! The factory we are told closed down in 1936. In Sept 2019 this watch had a thorough service, fully stripped, cleaned, oiled and timed. A genuine rare opportunity to acquire a perfect condition Art Deco Gents wrist watch which is 'old new stock', dating to the 1930's but has never been sold, marketed or worn. In this condition, watches from those years are unique and extremely difficult to find. Once these watches are gone, that's it, this is a limited availability. Chrome-plated, never worn, slightest superficial storage marks, excellent condition for the age, 31.5 x 23.5 MM mm without lugs. Original dial with Arabic numerals, finely yellow hands, the hands and numerals with luminescent paint (this does not seem to be in working order). The glass crystal is unscratched. A new black leather strap has been added. The watch is perfect both for everyday wear and for adding to the collections. Lovely watch any gentleman would love to wear. The case back is f...
