Description

A well figured 19th century rosewood dining / centre table on quadraform base. English Circa 1840. Of good proportions, the adjustable circular well figured bookmatch veneered rosewood top sits over a spreading octagonal columned with lotus carved socle resting on a incurved quadraform base raised on well carved acanthus scrolled feet and hidden castors. In excellent condition having been restored using traditional methods this fine table has a very good natural colour with striking veneers. This versatile table can be used as a centrepiece in a hallway or as a dining breakfast table. Dimensions Width 51 inches - 131cm Height 28 1/4 inches - 72cm Depth 51 inches - 131cm
