Description

RARE design and decorated medium size early Scottish Wemyss ware flower pot. This is a very unusual decoration with the apples to the top and stylised ferns beneath. It is also not a common shape. The pot has been beautifully decorated all over in very good detail. It has the impressed Wemyss mark to the base along with the painted T. Goode of London retailers mark. The condition of the flower pot is very good apart from a hairline crack to one side. No repairs. SIZE; 5 1/2" diameter by 5" tall CIRCA; 1900
