Description

A very large French antique pine wardrobe dating from the turn of the century. It totally dismantles for delivery, so will go up any stairway, and with a 21" internal depth it is deep enough for large suit and coat hangers. The doors are mounted on typical French style external hinges so they can open fully -which may be useful. A very nice classic example - solid and sturdy. Currently in the bare wood having recently been stripped, so is now ready for waxing. The price includes wax polishing or it can be purchased for £1000 in its current condition (as seen here). Height: 79", width: 69", depth: 25.5", internal depth: 21"

Internal Ref: D2205F
