Description

This little table has been well looked after. In good tidy condition with only very minor scuffing over the last few decades this pretty 1930s wine table is in an original state. We have given it a light waxing and buffing and it is now ready to go to a new home. It is just a little bigger than some similar examples and offered at a most sensible price. Carriage can be arranged but the minimum cost is likely to be about £60 to most areas of the country.
