Description

A rare and unusual Victorian SOLID SILVER BOOKMARK made in the form of a Scimitar Sword. The elaborate handle is fashioned in Silver Marcasite. This high quality Silver Bookmark was made by the well-known and sought after silversmith, Charles Horner, and was assayed at Chester in 1897. The bookmark has a slot in it so that it can be slipped over a page in a book, marking it for you. This rare bookmark has not been engraved with a previous owner's initials or family monogram. The body has been impressed with a full set of English solid sterling silver hallmarks and the bookmark is in excellent condition despite being over 120 years old. This Superb Victorian Book or Page Marker would make a superb addition to any collection or a gift that can still be used today. Condition: Used / Excellent There is no damage and no repairs. One or two very minor marks to the blade – nothing much but mentioned for accuracy.
