Description

A beautiful Regency period mahogany chest of drawers. Excellent quality and very well made with a lovely rich patina and attractive curved edges. It stands on sweeping bracket feet and the drawers have brass lions head handles. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. The drawers have their original penny paper lining and are generally clean and tidy. They open well, having recently had the runners either repaired or replaced. The handles are later replacements but suit the piece well. There are the usual small signs of wear, some minor marks and small knocks here and there but nothing detrimental. There are a few old repairs to chips around the drawers and a repair to the veneer across one back corner (see photos) but overall they display very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. Regular deliveries to London for £60. Nationwide delivery available, please get in touch for an accurate quote.
