Description

A very imposing 19th Century cast iron door stop in the form of a winged griffin on a shaped rectangular base. This mythical beast is very well cast and supports a brass mask head shield bearing the crest of the Stuart clan/Marquis of Bute. This is a piece of excellent quality. An unusual, decorative and useful item with very interesting Scottish connections. c.1860 Height: 12" (31cm) Width: 12" (31cm) Depth: 3.25" (8.4cm)
