Description

A nice pine farmhouse dining table dating from the late 19th Century. It stands on tapering square legs with a wide 3-plank top with cleated ends. It has a small single drawer in one side with a turned wooden knob. It is a very sturdy table and a good height to sit at with a good leg clearance of 23 1/2" / 60cm all the way around. A good size that sits four adults comfortably. It has been cleaned and has a smooth waxed finish and a pleasant warm colour with signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. There are some signs of historic woodworm in the base which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the table structurally or aesthetically. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £60.
