Description

1925 Waltham Bartlett full hunter pocket watch. The watch has a high grade stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement has nicely patterned plates, a starwheel patent regulator and jewelled pallets. The Bartlett grade was named after Patten Sargeant Bartlett who was one of the early employees of the Boston Watch Company which went on to become the Waltham Watch Company. He subsequently left Waltham to work for the National Watch Company at Elgin Illinois but eventually returned to Waltham to work as a salesman before opening his own wholesale business. As well as being fully signed, the movement carries the serial number 25,179,304 which dates it back to 1925. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover which has a slight indentation and some surface marking. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is gold plated and it was made by the Dennison Watch Case Company, a British company who supplied the majority of cases for Waltham UK. The case has three fairly small dents towards the edge of the case. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside the lens is in lovely condition. The ...
