Description

This Oak refectory dining table was made circa 1920. The table with a 4cms (1 1/4ins) solid top, and the base with trestle silhouette supports joined by an upper and lower stretcher that are secured by pegs that tap into place. This makes the table very solid and durable for any setting. These tables are so easy to transport as they break down to their integral pieces, therefore can go in any home. Imagine entertaining at this table, and as it is in the oak it is very hard wearing. 183cms long 72ins 80.5cms wide 31 3/4ins 72cms high 28 1/2ins All measurements are approximate This Oak refectory dining table is a finite item and a very green product that has not affected the environment we live in.
