Description

Oh wow! An awesome vintage three stone ring. The cushion shaped old mine cut diamond in the centre – graded by EGL as I colour, VS1 clarity -is secured in a four claw collet designed to let as much light as possible to pass through the stone. A pair of pear cuts sit either side, but slightly away from, the centre stone allowing each stone to be showcased individually. The pears merge into a nicely substantial D-shaped yellow gold shank. Accompanied by a diamond grading report from EGL (#1957022935). Cut – Old mine cut in the centre with pear cuts either side. Colour – The centre is I, with I to J diamonds either side. Clarity – VS1 in the centre. The pears are VS1 to VS2. Carat – The centre is a known 1.52 carat. Each of the pears is approximately 0.50 carat. Circa – 1930. Size – J (UK) or 4 5/8 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can be sized up or down. Measurements – The centre stone is 6.5 x 6.41mm. From the outer tip of one pear to the other is 18mm. Metal – 18k gold. French hallmarks.
