Description

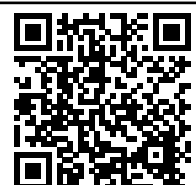

An absolute stunner of a tea service, all pieces having the most ornate and intricate hand engraved decoration, simply stunning! The set is wonderfully clean with the milk jug and sugar bowl being gilded to the interior. The two pots both have handsome carved ebony finials on top and the handles with bone insulator rings stopping heat radiating down the handle where it would be held during pouring. All pieces are marked by London retailer "Benetfink & Co, Cheapside, London ". This mark was used between 1852 and 1861, so a wonderful Victorian example, and very grand. The condition is wonderful. The teapot measures 11" handle to spout x 6" tall; The coffee pot measures 10" handle to spout x 8 1/4" tall; The sugar measures 7 1/2" x 4"; and the creamer measures 5 3/4" handle to spout.
