Description

An exceptional early 20th century leather suitcase. This beautiful example has three lifting handles and all of its original fastening straps in tact. It has the richest, warmest colour imaginable with a soft lustre shine. It is a wonderful decorative object in it's own right, but with a tray placed on the top, would make an original one-off low coffee table. This supreme quality piece of vintage luggage is English, c.1910. . . .
