Description

This ebonised six-drawer duet stool is of an unusual and rare form, designed to be practical but yet aesthetically pleasing from all sides. The cabinet making is of a very high standard with quality timber used throughout. All its original handles are secured with handmade oval nuts which is a sure sign of superior craftsmanship. The castors are also original. Apart from the contemporary topmost grey fabric the underlying upholstery is original - it would be simple and inexpensive to replace the fabric if so desired. When ever possible Culvertons undertake the carriage of items within London and the home counties. Professional, competitive and trusted couriers and shipping companies are engaged for deliveries for the remainder of our customers.
