Description

A pair of heavy Victorian bronze vases/urns with beautiful details throughout. Each has a cherub face on either side and a raised female face in a decorative shield on the front, with a leaf design on the base. Underneath the bowl shape are more decorative details - see photo 5. The vases/urns are 19cm in height and the base is approximately 7.5cm square, the top is approximately 7.5cm in diameter and each one weighs approximately .8kgs. They would make excellent candle holders if not used as vases. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price and for remote parts or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
