Description

A beautiful Victorian mahogany chest of drawers dating from the late 19th Century. The drawer fronts are solid mahogany with hand cut dovetail joints and the whole piece is excellent quality with a lovely rich patina. The bottom drawer is full depth incorporating the plinth which provides a huge amount of storage. The drawers all open well and it is a clean sturdy set with all the original turned knobs and the original blue 'penny paper' drawer linings. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are the usual minor signs of age and use, some surface marks, small knocks and minor chips but nothing detrimental and overall it displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
