Description

This large impressive antique table top gong which dates from the late 19th century, is made using 2 large bovine horns mounted on an English oak base with decorative silver plated mounts and a blank central cartouche. The brass gong which is suspended on chains between the two horns, is nicely polished and makes a nice loud dong when struck with the brass and leather striker. This impressive and highly decorative gong would look super cool in a restaurant, bar or hotel or a nice feature piece for your home and great for dinner parties. Material: Oak. Silver Plate. Brass. Cattle Horn. Date: Late 19th. Height: 36 cm (14") approx. Base: 41 cm (16") x 17 cm (6 1/2") approx. Weight: 2.234 Kg. Condition: Excellent antique condition with light signs of wear in keeping with age.
