Description

A good quality small antique Victorian arts and crafts coffee table or lamp table in solid walnut dating from circa 1890 after a design By E W Godwin. The square top above a tiered shelf with moulded edges on four tapered turned legs with bun feet with angled stretchers supporting the lower shelf. Solid and sturdy, a stylish small table in beautifully mellow solid walnut, with good colour and patina. A similar table can be seen illustrated in "The Secular Furniture of E.W Godwin" by Susan Soros (p. 144) The V & A also have a manuscript sketch of the table which was originally designed around 1867 and then later interpreted and produced such as this later example. Construction/Wood: Walnut Condition Report: Good original condition. Good colour and patina. General wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 43cm Depth: 43cm Height: 66cm
