Description

This exquisite large scale portrait is a sublime example of The Dutch Golden Age portrait. In this carefully observed three quarter length portrait the patron is wearing the style of clothing that was fashionable in Holland during the early to mid 17th century. - ABOUT THE SITTER JUSTINA VAN TEYLINGEN (1596- 1643) She was married to Adriaen de Kies van Wiessen in 1613 when she was seventeen. This contemporary half length version of the three-quarter prime version was first painted by Van de Voort to commemorate her marriage. Justina is soberly but richly dressed in a lace cap trimmed with fashionable and expensive reticella lace, starched millstone ruff, embroidered stomacher, black skirt and long black overgown. - Clothes and accessories were of enormous importance. Often immense sums were spent on them, and sitters were justifiably proud and anxious to show them off. Their clothes and accessories also carried strong social connotations. - Black was the high fashion of that era and this portrait rises to the challenge of painting black on black to depict the floral pattern of the vlieger overgown. She wears a wedding ring on her right forefinger. The type of diade...
