Description

Standing on a stepped base with a knobbed stem, this superb small ANTIQUE SILVER GOBLET has a bowl with a gadrooned base and fabulously embossed sides with a floral scroll design and a blank central cartouche within a shield. To one side there is an applied silver disc with a family emblem of a nightingale on a branch making this a very unusual item. The interior of the bowl still retains the original gilt coating – a sign of real quality. Made by J.A. Restall & Co. in 1912, this lovely Silver Goblet is in excellent condition despite its age and would make a wonderful gift for someone or would enhance any silver collection. Condition: Used / Excellent There is no damage and no repairs. Minor dink to rim – nothing much but mentioned for accuracy.
