Description

This is an antique haberdashery cabinet. An English, oak and mahogany tiered display cabinet dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Desirably aged with remnants of commercial patina adds to the visual appeal. Select cuts of oak and mahogany display fine grain interest. Bright citrus hues to painted interior and drawer backs. Original plate glass in bright order with light marks, commensurate with age. A suite of 12 graduated drawers arranged four by three. Each drawer dressed with brass demi-lune pulls. Rear of cabinet fully finished, ideal for central room placement. Raised upon a continuous plinth base. This is a charming antique haberdashery cabinet, suited to commercial or collectable purposes. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home or enterprise.
