Description

A good large Victorian cut glass scent bottle with solid silver top and collar. The bottle is good quality with its original stopper chained to the collar in a most unusual design. The silver is hallmarked for Charles Boyton, London, 1893. It is in good condition for its age. There are some small dinks in the silver and some general signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. There are no cracks or major damages to the glass however there are some minor small surface nibbles around the bottle and some on the ground stopper but overall it displays very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. UK delivery £5, rest of the world £20
