Description

A very fine example of a windsor stick chair in ash, of a distinctive style which has been identified as coming from Yorkshire, having a hoop-back with spindles above a single-piece armrest with turned front supports fronted by bent split sections, over a solid saddled seat with a shaped front and with elaborately figured grain, raised on nicely turned front and rounded rear legs united by a turned H-stretcher. There is a strong backward lean to this comfortable chair. Superb original colour and surface. Height: 40 inches; 101.5 cms Seat Width: 20.5 inches; 52 cms. Seat depth (incl spindles): 16 inches; 40.5 cms. Height of seat at front: 15 inches; 38 cms.
