Description

Antique mahogany 3 pillar dining table This Antique mahogany 3 pillar dining table was made in the early 20th century using timber for the top from a Georgian dining table that had become redundant. The table with 2 round ends and a further central section with 2 leaves to extend the table even further. Mahogany turned gun barrel columns with triple legs support the table at each end and the central pillar with quadruple legs. Each leg is fitted with the wonderful cast brass claw toes with the castors under. (in a couple of the images the castor has been cropped by mistake in editing!) The table can be used with no leaves. This makes for a very versatile dining table to suit the sitting you require as you entertain your family and friends. As this table does not have a leg to each corner it enables you to get more guests to sit around it. Imagine how good this will look in your dining area and the fun that you will have as you dine. 305cms wide 120ins 196cms without leaves in place 77 1/2ins 99cms wide 39ins 73cms high 29 3/4ins The leaves each 54.5cms 21 1/2ins All measurements are approximate This Antique mahogany 3 pillar dining table is a finite item and a very gre...
