Description

This lovely little mahogany chiffonier or sideboard dates from the reign of queen Victoria. It has been cleaned and refinished in French polish and is now in really clean condition ready for a new home. It has good colour and graining, both of which are embellished by the fresh finish. This is a really superb size at only 37 inches wide and just under 14 deep, it takes up little space but still offers good storage, not only in the base behind the cupboards but also the two drawers under the top. There is the little gallery which gives additional space over the top which is 32 inches high. A clean little chiffonier for a smaller property maybe, just perfect in the right position. Keenly priced for such a neat little item especially in this very tidy condition.....sorry now reserved
