Description

An unusually small and low table, made of native Welsh oak, which would suit being placed against a wall or in the centre of a room. The three-plank top with edge-moulding, sits over elaborately-shaped front and side aprons, raised on slender "gun-barrel" legs united by turned H-shaped stretchers. (There is a hole in the centre of the middle stretcher which may have once held a finial, although that would be unusual.) Superb colour and surface patination. Montgomeryshire, circa 1760. Height: 22.75 inches; 57.5 cms Width: 25.25 inches; 64 cms Depth: 18.75 inches; 47.5 cms
