Description

A nice silver whisky flask of practical size and stylish flattened curved shape. The hinged lid twists to open and lock and has a cork infill to seal the flask. It is hallmarked for Birmingham 1933, maker Daniel & Arter. It measures 9.5cm (3 3/4") wide, 2cm (3/4") deep and 9cm (3 1/2") high. It weighs 105g / 3.4ozt and has a capacity of 125ml. Condition is very good; there are just a couple of very minor dings and a small scrape mark at the bottom left corner (this is far less noticeable in normal light than under the photographic lights). It is unengraved and so ready to go.
