Description

Lovely 18th century Worcester porcelain fluted cream jug and cover of baluster form with a sparrow beak spout. Pretty shaped handle and finished with a circular disc knob. Decorated in a rich royal blue with gilded patterning of chain link and vines twining above and below the blue bands, fully gilded handle and knob. Unmarked. It measures 12.7cm (5") high with cover (10.5cm (4 1/8") to the rim), 7.5cm (3") across the body and 10cm (4") wide including the handle. Condition is very good with no damage or restoration. Surface wear is very light, just a little rubbing to the top ridges of the rim as you would expect and a tiny bit to the decoration on the upper border.
