Description

A fine pair of late Georgian solid silver salt cellars set on hoofed feet, both with their blue glass liners. They are stylish and good quality, weighing approximately 87g without the liners. They are hallmarked for London 1837. The makers mark is slightly worn and difficult to pin point it to a particular maker. They are in excellent condition. There are no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some faint surface marks and a few light scratches and small dinks but nothing detrimental. There's no damage to the glass liners. They have been gently cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. UK delivery £5. Rest of the world £20.
