Description

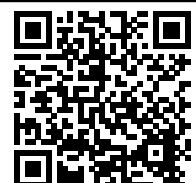

A good French CARRIAGE CLOCK by the famous maker: "Henri JACOT and signed with his trademark on the back of the movement. Within its good "Corniche" case, with bevelled glass panels to all four sides and the top, the 8-day movement strikes hours and half-hours on a gong, and repeats hours at will. Good enamel dial and fitted with its original lever platform escapement. Complete with original numbered key and numbered leather travelling case. Henri Jacot was one of the finest makers of Carriage Clocks in the second half of the 19th century. A "jacot" is a parrot or "pretty polly"; his trademark is a parrot on a stand between the initials "H" and "J".
