Description

A good quality late Regency or William IV period rosewood GAMES/SOFA TABLE in fine original condition. The top features a sliding centre section which when removed and turned over, reveals the inlaid chess and draughts board, whilst the original gilt-tooled leather backgammon board is revealed in the "well" below. To either side of the frieze are two small drawers (for chess & backgammon pieces etc) and it is supported on tapering and faceted legs leading to pretty carved collars; small platforms and well-carved feet with original castors concealed below. Complete with a Regency period white and red-stained bone chess set. 30ins wide; 18ins deep; 28.5ins high.
