Description

George II walnut chest on chest This George II walnut chest on chest was made circa 1740. The cabinetmaker would have picked these amazing walnut veneers to show off the oval figuring. He matched the veneers down the drawer fronts on the base section, the 4 ovals run down the fronts of each drawer giving this a unique look. The size of the ovals is extraordinary, imagine the tree that they were from! The top section with the fine canted corners with the flutes running up. This section is fitted 3 small drawers along the top and a further 3 graduated drawers below, the bottom drawer also having stunning feature veneers. It stands on the original ogee bracket feet. Antique chests on chests are magnificent pieces of furniture, not only are they magnificent to look at they also give great storage opportunities. Imagine how much you can store in this! 183cms high 72ins 102cms wide 40ins 53.5cms deep 21ins All measurements are approximate This George II walnut chest on chest is a finite piece of antique furniture that is a very green product which has not affected the environment we live in.
