Description

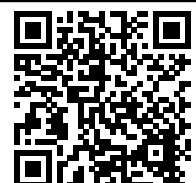

A wonderful small antique Edwardian cream painted bureau, in Georgian Revival design and painted with Neo Classical designs, dating from circa 1905. This is a very pretty and unusual piece profusely decorated with good quality hand painted flowers, urns, cherubs, bows and musical instruments to the top, front and both sides. It has 3 graduated drawers with brass plate handles and stands on bracket feet. The fall front drops down and rests on semi-circular drawers to reveal pigeon holes above two small drawers and a small cupboard. The interior is also painted with floral designs. A really pretty and unusual bureau, in original condition and of a small size.

Construction/Wood: Painted Pine Condition Report: Good original condition. Some paint missing to top and edges in places as to be expected. Dimensions: Max Width: 63cm Depth: 40cm Height to Fall: 73cm Height to Top: 95cm
